Mia Armstrong a sassy 7 yr old with Down syndrome is inspiring the world with her sass and her take charge attitude. Mia prefers pants to dresses, french fries to green beans, a bob haircut to flowing locks and has no filter which makes working with her an adventure. Mia made history in 2018 as the first person with Down syndrome to appear on ABC's show The View. She has appeared in numerous commercials and print ads for Mega Brands. The Armstrong family often appears with her as they share a remarkable bond.
